Tax self-certification

Tax regulations¹ require us to collect information about each investor's tax residency³. In certain circumstances (including if we do not receive a valid self-certification from you) we will have to share information about your account(s) with His Majesty's Revenue & Customs (HMRC) who may in turn share this information with any or all participating tax jurisdictions⁴.

Tax residency

Please indicate all countries in which you are resident for tax purposes and the associated tax reference numbers in the table below. If you are a US citizen or resident, please include United States in this table along with your US tax identification number.

Country/countries of tax residency	Tax reference number ⁵
If you are not resident in any country for tax purposes, please tick this box

Tax self-certification notes

- ¹ The term "tax regulations" refers to regulations created to enable automatic exchange of information and include FATCA², various Agreements to Improve International Tax Compliance entered into between the UK and its Crown Dependencies and its Overseas Territories and the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS).
- ² The term "FATCA" refers to The Foreign Account Tax Compliance provisions contained in the US Hire Act 2010.
- ³ In general, you are tax resident where you are liable to taxes, based on where you live and work permanently although different jurisdictions have different rules in relation to tax residency. If in doubt, please contact your tax adviser.
- ${\bf 4}$ Those countries that have agreed to exchange information under FATCA and the CRS $^{1}\!.$
- 5 If you are a UK tax resident and not a tax resident anywhere else and also not a US citizen, you are not required to provide details of your "Tax reference number" or 'date of birth', or if you are not resident in a jurisdiction that is reportable under CRS or FATCA and also not a US citizen, you are not required to provide your 'tax reference number' or 'date of birth'.
